

GREAT UNIVERSITIES HAVE GREAT MUSEUMS.

FOUNDED, LIKE UNIVERSITIES, TO SERVE HUMANKIND,
ACADEMIC MUSEUMS ARE NO MORE DISPOSABLE ASSETS
THAN ARE LIBRARIES AND ARCHIVES.

Join the growing list of over 2,200 students, teachers, researchers, department chairs, librarians, deans, presidents and development officers, trustees, regents, museum board members, directors and curators, foundation leaders and individual donors to the nation's universities and colleges, who have signed a statement of solidarity with the nation's academic museums.

To learn more please visit www.acumg.org/Solidarity

Principal Signatories:

American Association of Museums

Carl Nold, Chair; Ford Bell, President

Association of Art Museum Directors

Michael Conforti, President; Janet Landay, Executive Director

Association of College and University Museums and Galleries

David Alan Robertson, President

University Museums and Collections

International Council of Museums, Cornelia Weber, Chair

College Art Association

Paul Jaskot, President; Linda Downs, Executive Director

Samuel H. Kress Foundation

Max Marmor, President

Association of Art Museum Curators

John Ravenal, President; Sally Block, Executive Director