

Questions for Consciousness-Raising:

- Do women artists still face similar prejudices in contemporary society? Why or why not?
- What is feminism to you? Is its position defensive or offensive?
- Does patriarchy exist? What are your views on hegemony?
- What would have to change before men and women achieve true equality? Or are we already an equal society?
- In your opinion, how do men in today's society think about women in general?
- How are boys and girls socialized, and how does this affect their perceptions of gender?
- In what ways are gender conceived different across different countries, cultures, races, religions, etc.? Are there some universals?

In your opinion, are there some forms of sexism that still exist today that need to be addressed?